

Equality and Diversity Policy

Introduction

As part of the commitment made by A1 Services (Manchester) Ltd to Equality of Opportunity it has adopted a policy statement covering its employment practices and procedures. This document outlines the policy that must be strictly adhered to by every employee. All breaches of this policy will be investigated and, where appropriate, disciplinary procedures followed.

Equal Opportunities

Relates to treating people the same, although they may belong to certain groups. Equal Opportunities in particular relates to a legal framework, which makes it illegal to discriminate against people because they belong to particular groups.

Diversity

Diversity is a broader concept that builds upon the progress made through equal opportunities. Everyone is different and diversity is about recognising, respecting and valuing the differences we each bring to work. Equal opportunities and diversity work together by addressing the inequalities and barriers faced by people in under-represented groups and by valuing, learning and benefiting from the diverse cultures in society and our staff.

General Statement of Policy

It is A1 Services policy that no employee or prospective employee will receive less favourable treatment or is disadvantaged by any circumstances, conditions or requirements that cannot be justified.

The Policy Statement

The management of A1 Services recognises that people are discriminated against and will make every effort to ensure they will not unreasonably exclude any individual from access to any activities, goods, facilities or services, or any employment opportunities, that they offer. As an employer committed to equality and diversity in all its practices, A1 Services recognises that groups and individuals are discriminated against on the basis of age, gender, ethnic origin, race, nationality, colour of skin, sexuality, impairment (physical, sensory or learning), physical appearance, marital or other life status, religious or political belief and other differences that cannot be justified. Every employee is entitled to expect equality of opportunity in all aspects of their employment including its terms and conditions. Every potential employee is entitled to expect the recruitment process to be free of all unreasonable barriers. All employees of A1 Services shall be made aware of this policy and its implications for them.

What We Expect from our Employees

Whilst the responsibility for creating and monitoring a culture of equality of opportunity rests with A1 Services, its success relies on each employee playing their part. Employees have a number of responsibilities, many of which are directly related to their jobs, but the following are general instructions that apply to everyone:

- Every employee shall comply with measures that are introduced to ensure equality of opportunity non-discrimination. Training appropriate to each employee's role will be provided;
- Those individuals responsible for other employees are not to discriminate when applying processes relating to the training, advancement, performance, management, transfer, redeployment, discipline, retirement, dismissal or redundancy, benefits, facilities and services;
- No employee shall induce, or attempt to induce, other employees or trade unions or management to discriminate;
- No employee shall victimise an individual on the grounds that they have made complaints or provided information about discrimination or harassment;
- No employee shall harass, abuse or intimidate another employee on any grounds.

Publicising and Advertising Vacancies

All vacancies shall be advertised internally in the first instance; if no internal candidate is appointed then the post shall be advertised externally. All recruitment material and processes, including advertisements, will be available, or be offered, in a variety of media that reflects the basic requirements of the post. Use shall be made of local media, job centres and careers offices.

Potential applicants shall be given clear and accurate information about posts through a job description and person specification that includes only requirements that are necessary and justifiable for the effective performance for the job.

All recruitment advertisements shall draw attention to A1 Services equal employment opportunity policy, and that any applicant for a post who wishes to declare that they have a disability and who satisfied the job description and person specification will be offered an interview.

Recruitment

Recruitment practice and procedures shall be as open and barrier free as possible. Application forms and other supporting material shall be free of personal questions or requests for information from which inferences could be drawn as to the status of an individual that are irrelevant to the job description. Selection criteria shall be kept under review to ensure that they are justifiable for the effective execution of the job. More than one person shall be involved in short listing and selection for interview and all involved shall have received training under equality and diversity.

Questions and selection tests shall relate to the requirements of the job and shall be carried out by staff trained in carrying out the tests and the assessment of results.

No applicant shall be disadvantaged by an interview's timing, location or facilities.

Terms and Conditions of Employment

A1 Services complies with the Equal Pay Acts and is committed to ensuring that they do not unreasonably discriminate against any individual in the terms and conditions, both contractual and implied, within which they offer and provide employment.

Staff facilities and services shall be equally available to all employees and where, for reasons of space and cost, this is not being achieved, reasonable alterations will be made. Contracts and terms and conditions of employment shall be made available in a variety of media and positive consideration will always be given for them in other formats.

Monitoring

The Managing Director is responsible for monitoring the effectiveness of the Equality and Diversity Policy with overall responsibility for its implementation.
